

AQ Skin Solutions wins Hair Restoration Product of the year 2018

Judged by a panel of leading experts from around the globe, AQ Skin Solutions, which has recently launched in South Africa, has won the international award for Hair Restoration Product of the year with their AQ Skin Solutions® – AQ Advanced Hair Complex+.

On Friday 9th November 2018, stars and the elite of America's Aesthetics Industry lit up the red carpet at the MyFaceMyBody Awards USA 2018, the 'Oscars' of the aesthetics industry. Held at the iconic Beverly Wilshire Hotel, Los Angeles. Leaders in aesthetics, VIP's, press and celebrities gathered from across the United States for this industry night of nights.

The Global Aesthetic Awards celebrate and honour those at the pinnacle of the beauty business. MyFaceMyBody Awards USA 2018, winners were selected from hundreds of applicants from across America. The lucky few now hold the prestigious title of a MyFaceMyBody Global Aesthetic Award winner.

Comments Distributor of AQ Skin Solutions in South Africa Amy Bowie, "The MyFaceMyBody Awards is the leading aesthetics awards program in the world and was established to celebrate the success of this innovative industry and also to reward businesses and industry leaders for their achievements. It is a huge boost for us to acknowledge that we are working with a brand that is making serious strides within the aesthetic industry. Winning a MyFaceMyBody award is a huge accolade for any brand and we are proud to be the early adopters of this breakthrough technology (ie Human Growth Factor) in South Africa."

For further press information please contact Kirsten Hopwood on 0827488887 or kirsten@kirstenhopwood.co.za For more information on AQ Skin Solutions, please contact PHD Distributors on info@aqskinsolutions.com or call 021 914 1169